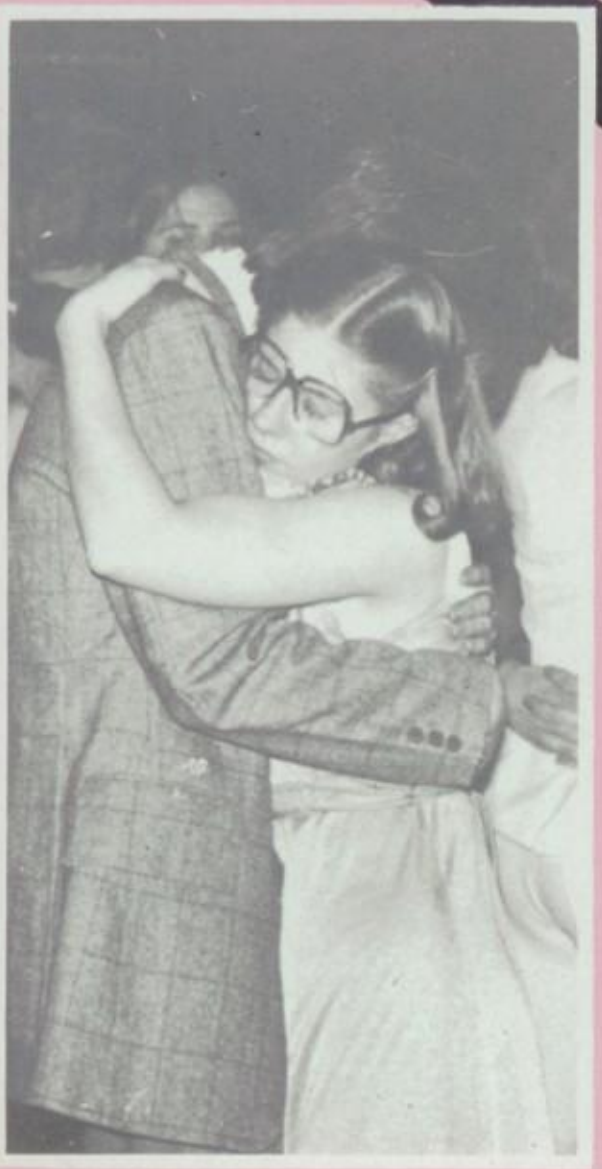
Classes . . . posters and drawings decorating the halls . . . sitting in alphabetical order . . . a quiz every Friday, despite that Thursday night basketball game . . . stifling a yawn . . . taking notes for what seems like centuries . . .

Artistic . . . striving for something original in term projects, cheers, plays or routines . . . starting a fad . . .

Readin' . . . ritin', and rithmetic . . . constantly reading . . . not more writing! . . . add this, subtract that, divide by 3 . . . always the same dull routine . . . but not really . . .



Dancing . . . doing the "bump" or the "hustle" with someone special . . . swaying slowly to soft music . . . canteen . . . homecoming . . . snoball . . . prom . . . who to ask . . . close only counts in horseshoes, hand grenades, and . . . slow dancing . . .

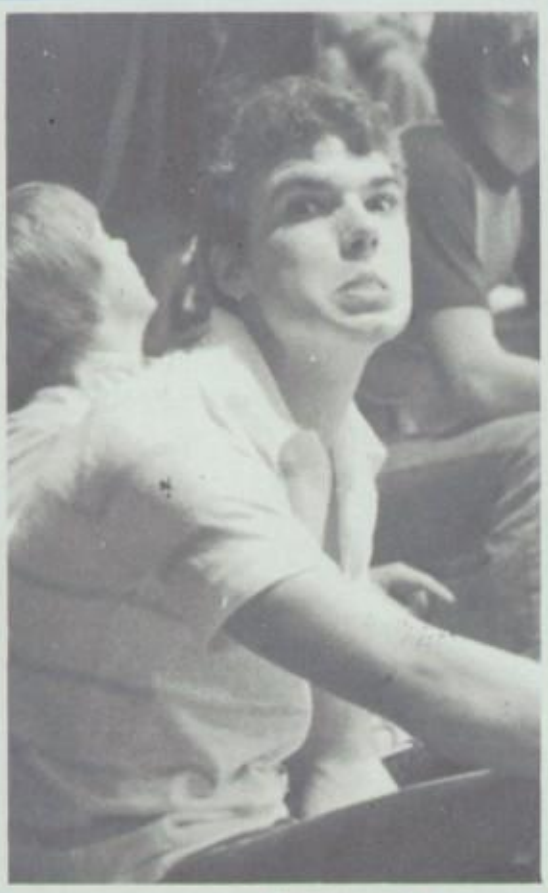
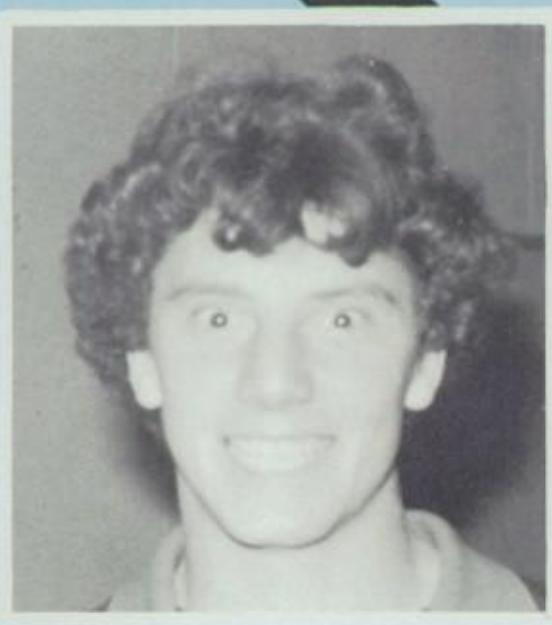
Imagination

. . . planning the Prom . . . making up pom-pon routines . . . excuses for being tardy . . . thinking of headlines . . . new ways to take pictures . . . figuring out Trigonometry problems . . .



Nerds

. . . doing dumb things . . . being singled out in class . . . answering a 'who done it' question with 'yes' . . . freshmen dropping in on the wrong class . . .

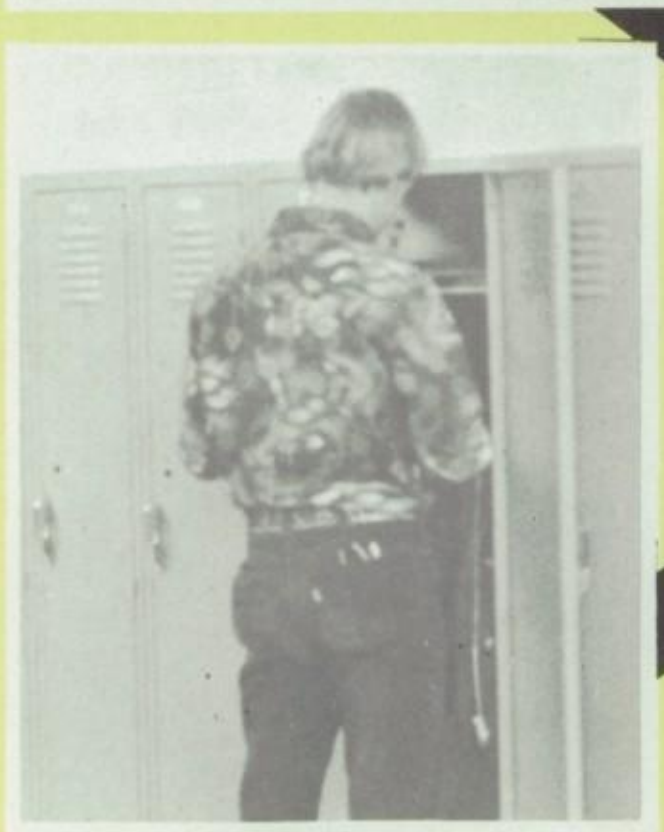


Al

. . . forever standing outside the office . . . 'get to class' . . . I wonder if he's gonna chew my head off . . . help . . . always has every thing under control . . . our wrestling coach; our leader . . .

Laughing

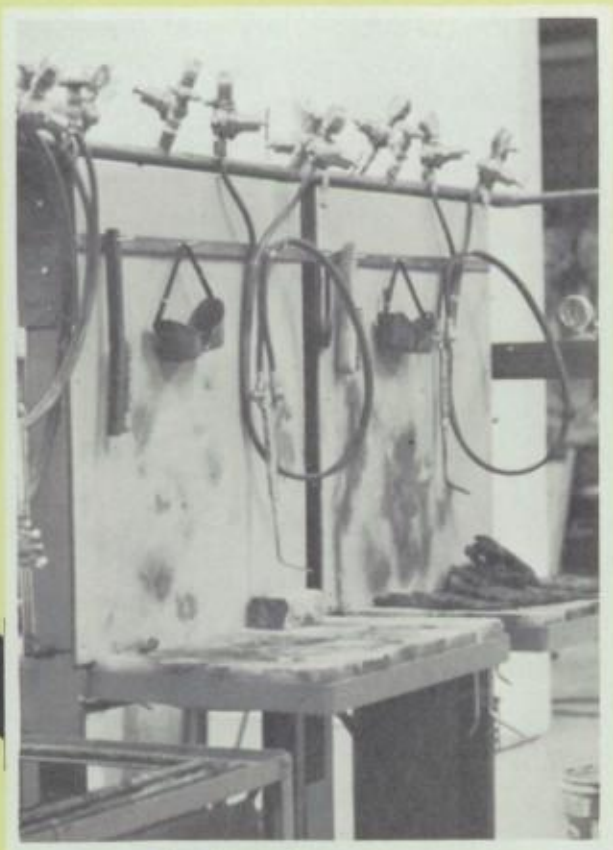
. . . norwegian jokes . . . being in a good mood . . . elephant jokes . . . cutting funnies . . . screwing around in band . . . Mr. Humphrey's jokes . . . Good Times . . .



Socializing . . .

people mixing, mingling, trying to blend with the crowd without disappearing . . . wide-eyed anticipation of a Freshman . . . singling out a smile in a sea of unfamiliar faces . . . waiting for that class ring so that you can give it away the minute it arrives . . . leaving those hallowed halls behind and leaving a part of yourself with them . . .

c.h.s. adds "THE BARN"



"The Barn," new this year, is a Vo-Ag shop and classroom. With construction beginning early last summer, it was planned to be ready by November 1st. Well, one thing led to another and we held our first class in our new addition on March 20th.

The official name is "The Jerry Goheen Vocational Agriculture Addition," dedicated to the late school board member, Mr. Jerry Goheen.

The "Barn," as it has been nicknamed, is 70 ft. × 130 ft. and has 3 shops, 2 classrooms, 1 office, and 1 storage. It has proven to be quite an asset.

p e r t s ?

Why . . .?

"I originally got into teaching by accident; but I stayed because I enjoy working with young people and I feel I should make use of a God-given but somewhat limited ability to explain things." N. Pederson

"I like young people — I like music: I know of no better way to serve these two 'likes' than by teaching young people to enjoy performing music well." O. Ringerud

"I wanted to coach . . . and both of my parents were teachers." R. Humphrey

"To help students get the proper outlook on life, so they will go into adulthood prepared." D. Zwinger

"I am teaching to supplement our income; however, I am thoroughly enjoying the art department with its enthusiastic pupil personnel and the spontaneity of the student body in general." S. Leitner

"I didn't plan on working in a school; but since I love to read, a library seems to be the right place to be." P. Egbert

FACING GRADUATION

Faces of old and faces of new,
People we know and people
we knew.
Growing together then drifting apart,
Always an ending and now a new start. . .
At graduation we all grow nearer
And all of our friends seem so much dearer.
And as we say our final goodbye,
One last embrace and one more cry,
A "keep in touch"
and a "promise I will"
A "remember when" but, better still,
A place in my heart, you'll always stay,
This is what's said as we go our own way. . .

— Laura Rollins
